ORDER

Plaintiff has brought this action against the Social Security Administration seeking, "Claim for my Social Security disability and that I've been back to my doctor and I now have new evidence that prove I am eligible for my disability now." (Pro Se Complaint Form). Plaintiff asks the court to look over "my old medical records again and, also my new medical information." Id. This matter is before the Court for review of the Report and Recommendation ("the Report") filed by United States Magistrate Judge Paige J. Gossett, to whom this case had previously been assigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2)(a), (D.S.C.). In the Report, the Magistrate Judge recommends that this action be dismissed with prejudice for lack of prosecution. (Doc. # 20). The Report was filed on November 24, 2009. Plaintiff filed no objections. Objections were due by December 14, 2009.

This Court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636. In the absence of objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

The Court has carefully reviewed the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation. For the reasons articulated by the Magistrate Judge, it is hereby ORDERED that the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation is ACCEPTED as to dismissal. (Doc. # 20). Pursuant to Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this case is dismissed without prejudice and does not operate as an adjudication on the merits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
